

PRESS RELEASE
MADISON COUNTY MONTANA
EMERGENCY OPERATIONS CENTER (EOC)

Incident: June 2022 Flooding

Date/Time: June 14, 2022 1:00 p.m.

For Immediate Release:

Due to hazardous flooding conditions throughout Madison County, the following areas/roads are temporarily or partially closed.

Lyons Park, Ennis, temporarily closed.

Cottonwood Creek Road, above Ruby Reservoir, temporarily closed.

Judy Lane, Alder, passable but use extreme caution.

Ruby River Rd. (near the intersection of Ruby River Rd., and Patrick Lane), Laurin, passable but use extreme caution.

Jack Creek Rd. (towards Moonlight Basin), open to 1 lane, recommend emergency or essential personnel only.

Earlier today, the Madison County Commissioners approved and signed Resolution 36-2022 a resolution declaring a state of emergency within Madison County.

Due to record river levels, we highly recommend to avoid all recreating in and around any bodies of water.

The Madison County Emergency Operations Center is open and available for inquiries or questions. Please feel free to call us at 406-843-4253.
