Rules and Procedures for Governing Voter Review Study Commission

Section 7.01 Guidelines for Public Participation. The following guidelines shall serve to assure reasonable and fair public participation in the decisions of the Town of Ennis Study Commission.

1. The public shall be invited to speak on any item under consideration by the Study Commission after and only after recognition by the presiding officer.
2. The speaker should step to the front of the room, and for the record, give his or her name and address and, if applicable, the person, or organization he or she represents.
3. Prepared statements are welcomed and should be given to the presiding officer and noted in the minutes of the meeting. Prepared statements that are also read, however, shall be deemed unduly repetitious. All prepared statements shall become a part of the permanent record.
4. While the Study Commission is in session, members of the public must preserve order and decorum. No person shall delay or interrupt the proceedings or the peace of the Study Commission nor disturb any member of the public or of the Study Commission while speaking or refuse to obey the orders of the presiding officer of the Study Commission.
5. Any person who while testifying shall use indecorous or abusive language or who shall become boisterous or disruptive shall be barred from further presentation to the Study Commission by the presiding officer, unless permission to continue be granted by a majority vote of the Study Commission.
6. Public comment is limited to 3 minutes per person per topic.
